Esperanzarte 2020

Discover the world of tequila at the 5th annual Esperanzarte art festival which takes place at the Esperanza Hotel, on February 15th, 2020 from 7 p.m. – 11 p.m. This year the Esperanzarte festival will be honouring the traditional art of harvesting the “Agave.” A working “Jimador” - the Mexican farmer who harvests agave plants will demonstrate the skill and know-how that go into slicing the tough exterior of the agave to reveal the precious heart of the plant which is the key ingredient in the production of the mezcal, sotol and tequila. Artists like Enrique Ortega, Juan Sotomayor, Elisa Pasquel and many more will create a unique expression of the year’s theme in their art to create an ode “The Agave” so essential the Baja economy.

Amid all this creativity, guests explore a sensory journey through the culinary innovations of Los Cabos’ finest chefs paired with unique cocktail formulations inspired by the noble agave. For further information on the Esperanzarte 2020 art festival, visit
