

How About a Long Winter's Stay in Los Cabos

Los Cabos is rated as one of Mexico's top tourist destinations, known for its beautiful beaches; exciting nightlife; it's sea arch and the many celebrities who call Los Cabos a 'second home.'

Los Cabos continues to maintain priority on the health and safety of its citizens and ensuring the wellbeing of visitors while on vacation.

The Ty Warner Mansion at Las Ventanas al Paraíso, A Rosewood Resort

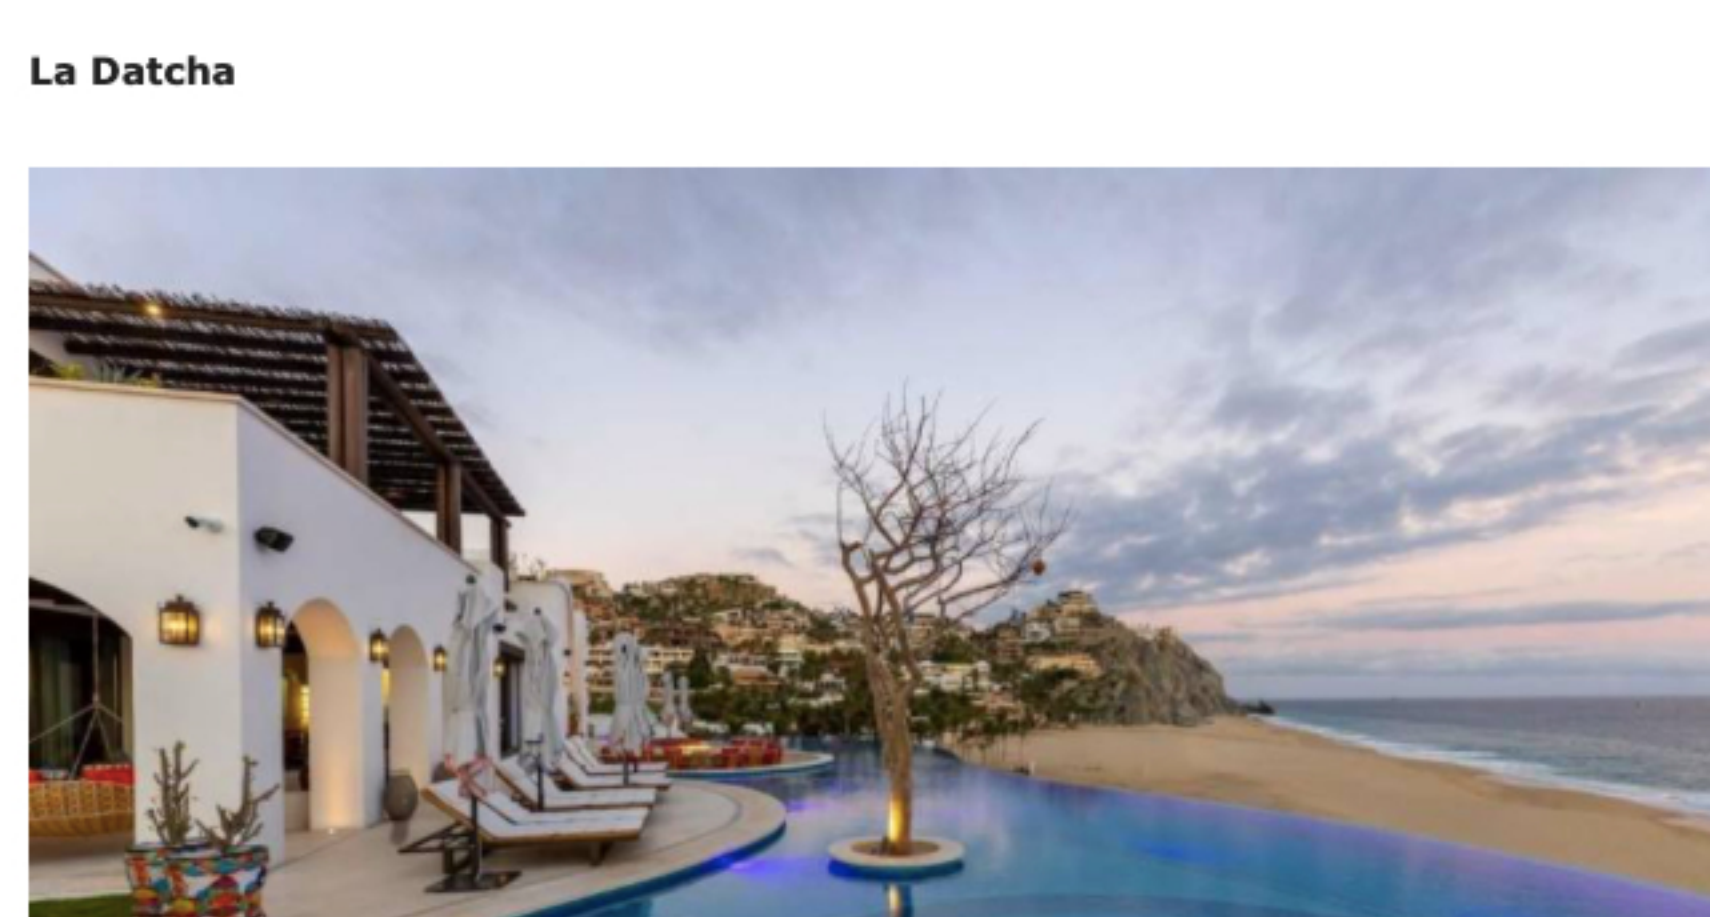

Welcome to your ultimate hideaway situated in Cabos most lauded resort. Imagine a private sanctuary featuring panoramic views of the Sea of Cortez and 28,000 square feet created by renowned architect Jorge Torres with interior by history-making decorator Robert Couturier.

The Mansion enjoys the services of a round-the-clock dedicated team including a personal assistant and butler with extensive training from languages to culinary arts and housekeeping.

The Mansion experience includes 20-foot high soaring ceilings, Indian silk upholstery and a 3-foot wide sliding glass door opening onto the expansive pool deck.

The Mansion boasts a large selection of exclusive wines, champagne and tequila from the Mansion's private cellar.

La Datcha

La Datcha Cabo San Lucas is located on the Pacific coast at the southernmost tip of Mexico's Baja California Peninsula.

The villa is built to cater to all needs of families and groups of friends on vacation, including a full staff composed of chefs, butlers, housekeepers, chauffeurs and a concierge.

The Gulf of California is a breeding ground for blue and humpback whales from November to April.

Villa La Datcha can be booked entirely for a minimum of 3 nights stay.

Casa Cuvee

Welcome home to your luxury beachfront vacation villa in Los Cabos' most sought after location. Casa Cuvee is located in the privacy of the Hacienda Beach Club Resort.

Guests of Casa Cuvee also have access to the Hacienda Beach Club, a 5-star luxury beachfront resort and its long list of amenities.

Curate every detail of your Casa Cuvee experience with Experience Curator.

Casa Cuvee is located on Medano Beach, the most popular Cabo San Lucas Beach encompassing several miles of safe swimming beach.
